

Hall of Fame/Friend of Education Nominations

Now is the time to make nominations for a 2018 Hall of Fame or Friend of Education award recipient.

Hall of Fame recipients must be a graduate of Beatrice High School and have excelled in their chosen career or in service to their community or country. 2017 recipients were Dennis Byars and Scott Coates. Past recipients have represented the fields of Medicine and Science, such as Drs. David Crandall, Robert Blankenship, Robert McCown, John C. Elwood and James Collman. Business and Government recipients have included David Maurstad, David Roehr, Robert Brewster, and Stephanie Perkins. The Fine Arts field has been represented by Ervin Dixon, Constance Rock, Sarah Terwilleger, Phoebe Dempster and George Neubert. Athletes have included Lloyd (Pop) Klein, Bob Hohn, Bill Roach, and Ben Plucknett. Other recipients have represented the fields of Education, Military, Government Service, Religion, and Public Service. The first recipients were named in 1996 and included Dr. Ruth Crone, Author; Howard McNenny, Architect; Martha Fricke, Public Servant; and Robert Taylor, Actor.

The Friend of Education recipient can be a past teacher, administrator, BHS employee or citizen of the community who has made a major contribution to education. Past recipients include John Bartels, Wilma Sawyer, Niel Tubbs, Wayne Kaeding, and Dennis Hynek. Both of these awards have been co-sponsored with Beatrice Sertoma Club since 1996.

A nomination form is included below. Completed forms are due in the Board of Education office no later than February 1. Announcement of the 2018 recipients will take place during the Beatrice Educational Foundation Scholarship presentation in April.

2018 Nominee Information Form

Name: _____ Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____ Phone: _____

Class of: _____

Employer: _____ Position/Title: _____

Address: _____

Reason for Nomination (please attach resume or other information)

Friend of Education

Hall of Fame