VOCAL MUSIC

Above are the members of the Girls' Octet: Mary Jo Lampe, accompanist, Kathy Carstens, Hazel Garman, Linda Morton, Barbara Glover, Sharon Fruehling, Sharon Rhineshart, Esther Wiebe, and Laraine Ault.

Under Miss Reilly's direction, the Department put on many colorful and often-spoken about programs throughout the year. Annually the groups put on the Christmas and Spring programs, which are always highly regarded.

The Choir is often asked to perform for clubs and organizations in the city and for school functions.

Various members of the Department make up the small groups: Girls' Octet, Girls' Triple Trio, and Boys' Octet.

Behind the baton, Mr. Burkel led the band through many musical activities in the past year. We witnessed their ability and skill in such features as marching drills, half-time ceremonies, concerts, and the State Music Clinic at Lincoln.

Besides participating in Band, certain members are active in the small groups: German Band, Brass Sextet, Twirlers, Flute Sextet, and the Pep Band.

At right are the members of the Flute Sextet. Sharon Hall, Margaret Crone, Mick Martin, Joyce Carstens, Barb Glover, and Linda Schlichting.

ORCHESTRA

Because Mr. Britten is new this year, there have been many new additions to the schedule. He had in mind an Ensemble Concert consisting of a String Quartet, a String Trio, a Woodwind Duet, and a Woodwind Quartet.

In conjunction with the Vocal Music Department, he helped put on the Christmas and Spring programs.

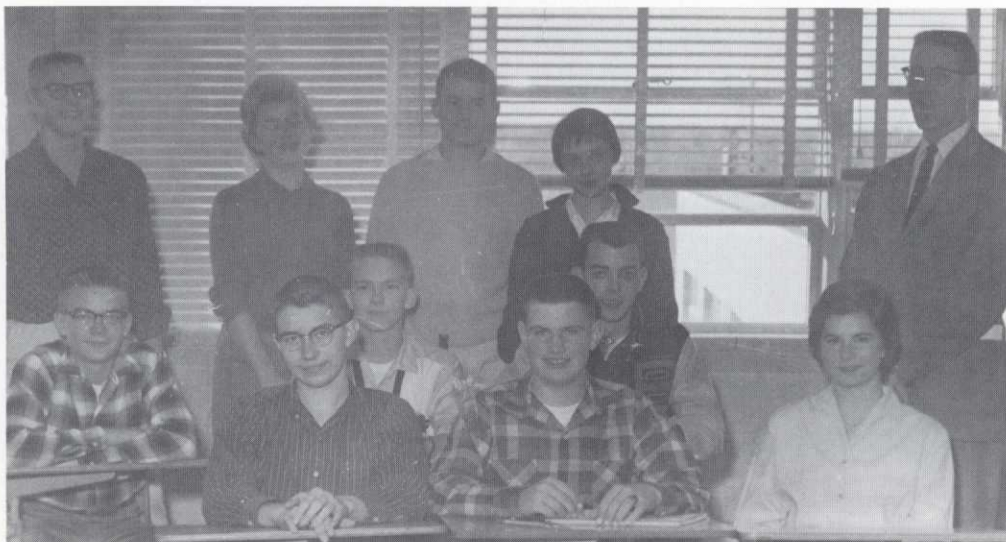

DEBATE

Do you have a gift of gab and a quick wit? If you do, you belong in the Debate Squad. Golden Larynxes and Silver Tongues have enabled our squad to achieve their successful record for the year. Among the tournaments and meets the members attended are the Social Studies and Debate Institute of Nebraska, the Lincoln Northeast Tournament, the Kearney Tournament, the NFL District Tournament in Hastings, and the State Debate Meet. There were at least three novice, or beginning tournaments throughout the year. The squad members also take part in such events as extemporaneous speaking, oratory, and radio newscasting.

The NFL, the National Forensic League, is an inter-school, competitive speech activity. One gets in the League by accumulating credit points for events entered in contests. After becoming a member of this honorary league, the members then earn degrees, the Degree of Distinction being the highest. Barb Pandzik, Steve Brott, Tom Wright, and Lynn McCown have earned the second highest degree, the Degree of Excellence. The NFL is a national honorary speech society organized to recognize achievement in competitive speech activities.

TISH

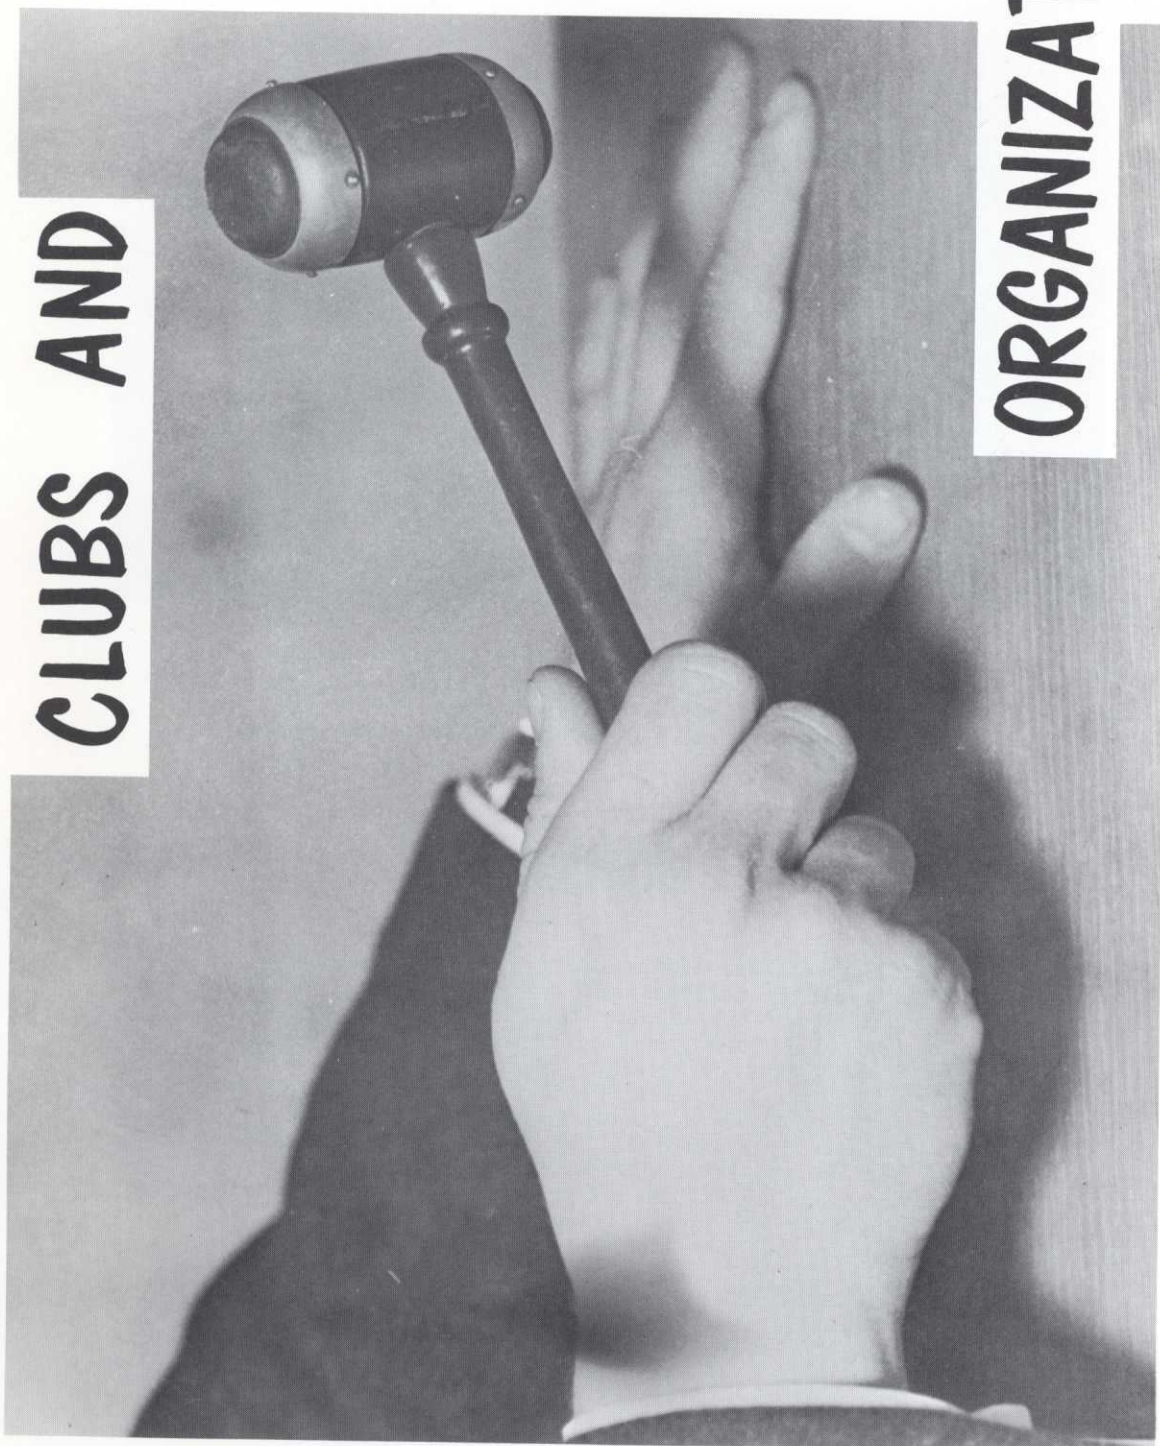

"Oh, Tish we just can't bear another of your ideas!" That anguished moan was one of the many in this year's All-School Play. Charlie Sands' Aunt Tish was always getting ideas that involved Aunt Lizzie and Aunt Aggie, usually in a rather painful way. Aunt Tish was determined to "get nearer the outdoors" and bought a delapidated second-hand car in which the three ladies took a trip. The car rebelled, and, as a result, the entire action of the play took place in the combination lunch room and lobby of "The Eagle Hotel," located in a remote section of the Southwest, near the Mexican border. A bit of mystery entered the plot, when a large sum of money was stolen from the hotel safe while Aunt Aggie and Aunt Lizzie were supposed to be keeping watch.

Included in the cast were Judy Betz, Susan Grussing, Sharon Fruehling, Lois Thomsen, John Spence, Carole Vanover, Doug Waltz, Rosalee Burger, Sharon Rhineshart, Jim Von Riesen, Steve Brott, Larry Graham, and Lynn McCown. The members of all the committees worked with Mr. Gene Maxey to make the play a success.

CLUBS AND

ORGANIZATIONS

BOARD

Again this year, it is hoped that the Homesteader will come out in the spring, with the supplement to follow later in the summer.

By attending the annual NHSPA and Journalism Division Convention in Lincoln during the fall, the Board acquired a lot of good ideas to keep the 1960 Homesteader of the same high caliber that it has been throughout the years.

Without the assistance of our hard-working photographer, Larry King and his assistant, Roger Brandt, the Board feels that a yearbook would have been almost impossible. Since they were novice cameramen when they began their work on the annual, the Board and Staff feel that their work is highly commendable.

HOMESTEADER

Assembling for a meeting are the members of the Staff:

STAFF

Working in conjunction with their sponsors, Mr. Colgan and Miss Reilly, the Student Council has completed another successful year. Early in the year they reached their goal of $200 needed to sponsor a foreign student next year. Some of their successful money-raising projects have been several concessions, a penny drive, and a dance.

Continuing the practice renewed last year, they opened the Student Lounge, as well as maintaining noon movies. The Council, aided by Mr. Genzlinger, again set up a program of volleyball games to provide noontime recreation for students. They also served as guides during Open House. Many good ideas were brought back from the Student Council Convention in Grand Island.

At the beginning of the year, members received committee assignments. The five committees do much of the routine work of the Student Council. The Merit Committee receives the reports from the committees. Planning fund raising projects and social activities is up to the Ways and Means Committee. The Courtesy Committee lives up to its name by sending thank you notes. Keeping pictures and all information pertinent to the Council is the function of the Scrapbook Committee. The Foreign Student Committee, working with Miss Souther, plans for an exchange student.

The co-operation and interest received from the students and faculty this year has been greatly appreciated.

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENT

CHRIS

Again this year BHS has been fortunate to have a foreign student in its school system. Our guest for nine months is Chris Olsson from Gothenburg, Sweden.

On the twentieth of July, Chris received a scholarship from the American Field Service to attend Beatrice High School. He left his home on August 19 and went to Holland by train. He then sailed from Rotterdam to New York.

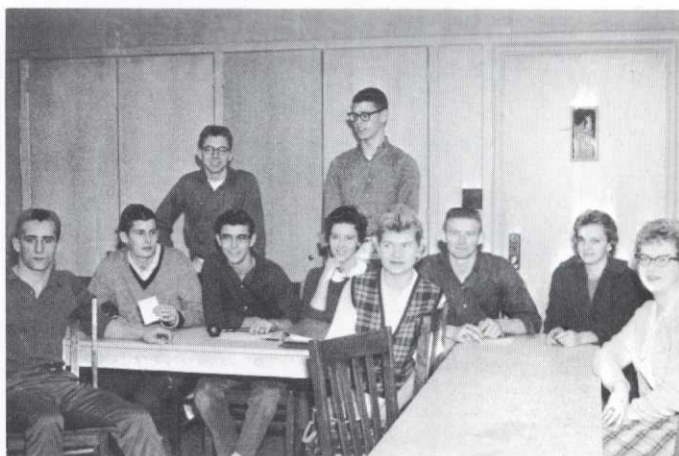

Chris tells us that he likes his foster family here in Beatrice very much. His hobbies are sailing and skiing. Although the sports are very different here, Chris enjoys them.

School, of course, is quite different. In Sweden, school is held for six days a week. Chris says that he carried about eleven subjects, but he did not have all of them each day. When he returns to Sweden, he will have two more years left at high school that correspond to our junior colleges.

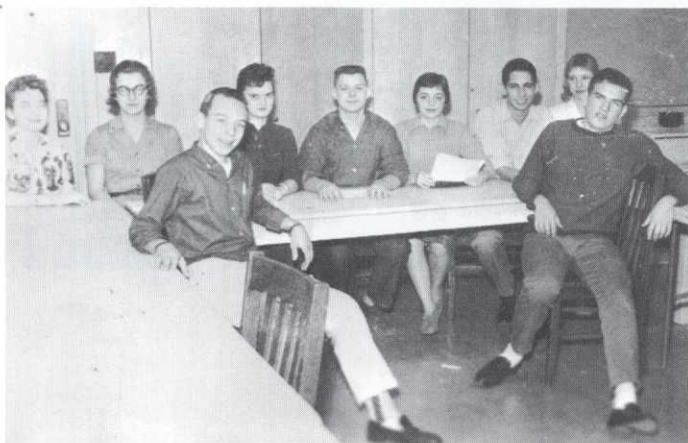

Right now, Chris plans to be a doctor, but he is not sure. He wants to move to the United States when he becomes older.

COUNCIL

MEMBERS

Pausing during the busy activities of the Council are Seniors George Neubert, Chris Olsson, Denny Southwick, Donna Coates, Mary Harman, Larry Woods, Jacquie Joyce, Karen Schanno. Standing are Gary Aden and Steve Byars.

Taking a break during a meeting are Juniors Sharon Fruehling, Hazel Garman, Judy Elwood, Sid Zimmer, Anita Maxwell, Bruce Kirstein, Mary Ann Aden. In front are Skip Hoppe and Jerry Naaf.

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION

Taking time out from their jobs are the members of the Distributive Education class, Marilyn Suggett, Pat Brown, Carolyn Tieszen, Phil Knowles, Marilyn Will, Jim Cripe, Judy Diekman, Tom Alvord, Linda Gallender, and sponsor, Mr. Dahlin.

As one can see, the size of the Distributive Education Class has increased in its second year of existence. In order to qualify for this special class, a student must have fourth, fifth, and sixth hours free each day. One of these three hours is devoted to classroom work and the other two to actual on-the-job experience.

This class is an essential for anyone who plans to go into the field of Business Administration or Retailing.

KEY CLUB

A very worthwhile organization in school is the Key Club, which is sponsored by Kiwanis International. Like any other service organization, the Key Club works for a better world in which to live. The most recent major activity is the Key Club Scholarship and Loan Fund which is being continued from last year.

B CLUB

Pictured above are the members of our B Club. FRONT ROW: Dave Crandall, George Neubert, Ray Goodenough, Tom Wright, Bob Hohn, Les Loth, Roy Swoboda. SECOND ROW: Tom Hepperlen, Dick Kujath, Alan Jackson, Larry Woods, Gary Wiebe, Tom Bitting, Rod Marshall, Gary Winter. THIRD ROW: Pete Genzlinger, Bob Martz, Jim Meyers, Jim Von Riesen, Denny Muehling, Don Weinman, Jerry Naaf. FOURTH ROW: Mike Wiedeman, John Spence, Sid Zimmer, Jim Rikli, John Weinman, Bob Wieck. FIFTH ROW: Sponsor Mr. Lutz, Bob Maixner, Jim Ensz, Garry Lutz, Mike Fisher, Wally Weekes. Now, getting your picture wasn't that bad, was it?

Under the guidance of its officers, Bob Hohn, President; Tom Wright, Vice President; Les Loth, Secretary; and Ray Goodenough, Treasurer; the B Club attends a University of Nebraska Basketball game. Members are fined if they do not wear their sweaters on game days. Some money-raising campaigns or programs of the B Club are the Coat Check and Concessions. The Club is in charge of arrangements for the Orange and Black Banquet and also chooses the Orange and Black Queen. The B Club indeed contains our "cream of the crop"-sportswise. It is through their own efforts that they become members of this fine club.

ZIP

Taking a rest from their cheering duties are the Reserve Cheerleaders Pat Gearhart, Linda Wright, and Maggie Simic.

CLUB

The two biggest jobs of the Zip Club are the Homecoming Dance and the Orange and Black Banquet. These social functions are successful because of the co-operation of the members, officers, and sponsors. Much credit is due the faculty sponsors, Miss Stevens, Miss Edwards, and Miss Orr.

The FFA was and is designed to supplement training opportunities for boys who are progressing toward the goal of establishment in a farming business. Through FFA activities cooperative spirit and individual talent are discovered and developed.

The National Emblem of the Future Farmers of America is made up of five symbols: the owl, symbolic of wisdom and knowledge; the plow, the symbol of labor and tillage of the soil; the rising sun, emblematic of progress and the day when all farmers are trained and have learned to cooperate; within the cross section of an ear of corn, which represents common agricultural interests since corn is native to America; and the eagle, indicative of the national scope of the organization.

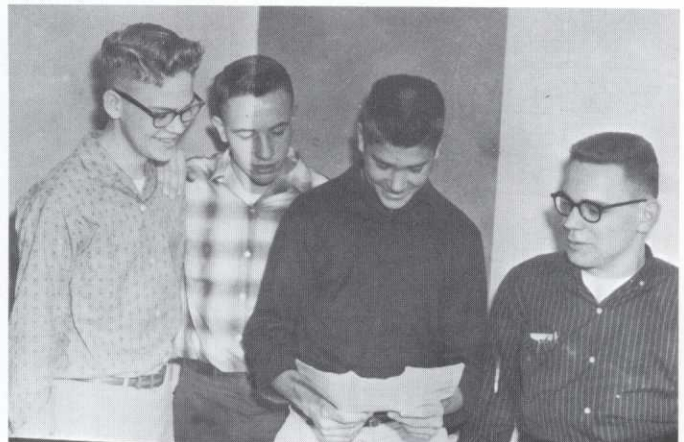

SCIENCE CLUB

Is it a scientific newspaper that has caught the attention of the Science Club officers Bob Cherny, Vice-President; Ron Glenn, Treasurer; Bill McCown, Secretary; and Alan Fiala, President?

Science enthusiasts of Beatrice High School may join the Science Club. This club promotes interest in science and experimental work. As science plays a very important part in our world of missiles and rockets, the Science Club is one of the most significant organizations. Among its members we can see young scientists who will one day make their mark in this fascinating atomic era.

LIBRARIANS

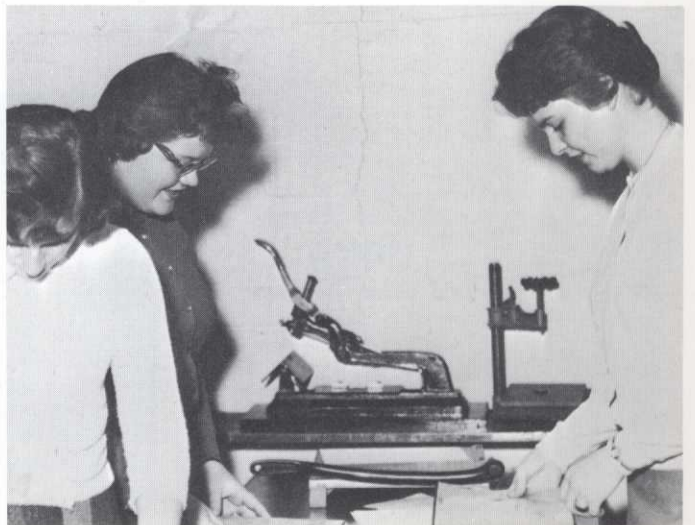

Admiring the new books are Jeanette Reimer, Gale Henderson, Mrs. Callaway, Eileen Boerger, and Ruth Snyder.

This year the librarians have done a fine job of keeping our lot of books in order. This, in itself, is a difficult task, but they also have other jobs to do, such as keeping track of fines, checking in and out books, looking up reference material for students, and attending meetings called by the librarian, Mrs. Callaway. The student librarians, alternating at the charging desk and magazine room, devote one hour a day to their library duties.

Enacting the various duties assigned them in the magazine room are Janice Hill, Linda Guenther, Sharon Baker, Roberta Shoemake, Artis Pofahl. At the magazines are Pat Crome, Susan Hawley, Sheryl Mosiman.

Putting covers on some of our new books this year are Sherial Bartlett, Judy Gaines, and Rita Heinke.

Bettina Trent, Jim VonReisen as Sheriff Lem Pike, Larry Graham as Denby Grimes, and Lynn McCown as Dorice Gaylord. Special merit should go to Sharon Fruehling as Aggie and Susan Grussing as Lizzie, and Judy Betz did an excellent job as Tish.

The production staff was made up of Mr. Maxey, director, stage manager Louie Lang; properties, James Wiebe, and sound effects and lighting, Alan Fiala.

Those who worked on the scenery under the direction of Mr. Don Hazelrigg were, Barbara Pandzik, Jan Bohrer, Don Lane, Louis Lang, Ron Williams, Anita Maxwell, Jim Meyers and George Neubert. Those in charge of costumes were Hazel Garman, Jeraldine Williams, and Barbara Borland. The make-up committee was Janet Rinne, Judy Nichols, Barbara Pandzik, Arlene Achtemeier, Sissy Weekes, and Janet Lindhorst. In charge of publicity was Mary Ann Aden and Judy Pihl. Ushers for the performance were Connie Horky, Charon Fisher, Judy Elwood, and Pat Hevelone.

Tish was a collection of stories written by Mary Roberts Rhinehart and made into a play by Alice Chadwicke.

PHOTOGRAPHY

The Photography Club, under the guidance of Mr. Cottingham, prints pictures, learns to develop negatives and makes Christmas cards from pictures. Both the beginning and the advanced classes learned to do portraits.

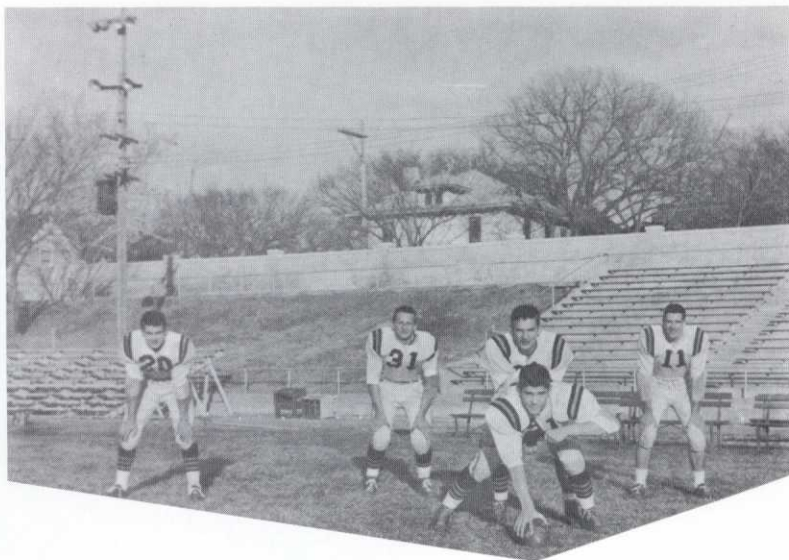

Posing for the camera are our Advanced group of shutterbugs: Bill Tiemann, Ron Marshall, Bonnie Steele, Judy Plihal, Alice Hall, and Jim Johnson.

SPORTS

Poised for action are the members of the backfield and the all-important center. Number 20, Tom Wright, is halfback. In jersey 31 is our fullback, Gary Wiebe. Behind Number 11 is halfback Bob Hohn. About to receive the ball from Center, Bill McCown, is Quarterback, Jerry Naaf. These boys are the ones who provide most of the scoring. Their speed and quick thinking have helped make possible our excellent season.

THE BACKBONE

Much of the credit should go to our coaches who have done a fine job this season. STANDING left to right they are: Assistant Reserve Coach, Mr. Alfrey; Reserve Coach, Mr. Baldwin; Line Coach, Mr. Guy; and Head Coach, Mr. Reichel. Largely through their efforts our team established an 8-1 record, second best in the school's history.

Rarin' to go are our linemen. Left to right they are: Larry Woods, End; Tom Hepperlen, Tackle; George Neubert, Guard; Dave Crandall, Center; Don Weinman, Guard; Roy Swoboda, Tackle; Jim Rikli, End. Without them we could not have established our fine season's record. We extend our hearty congratulations to them for their fine performance.

OF OUR TEAM

At the right is a picture of two very specialized performers. Working together, they add those important extra points and field goals. Standing is Tom Bitting, who, when he is not kicking a PAT, provides depth at the End position. Kneeling is Lyle Loth, whose principle duty is to hold the pigskin for "The Toe." He is also a member of the backfield. In a close game one really learns the worth of these two boys.

Now look, son . .

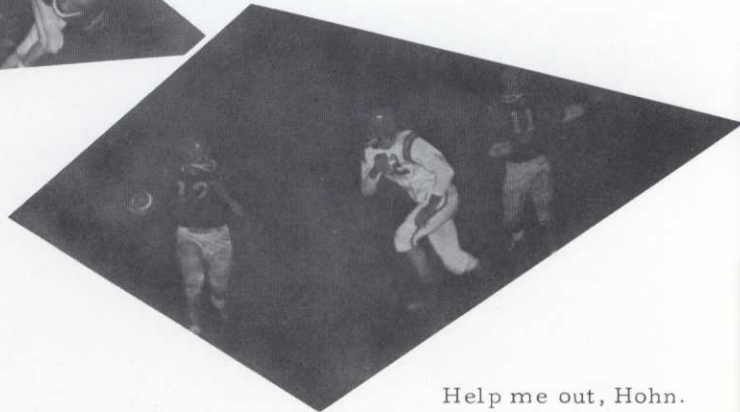

Let me play, coach!

Where's Beatrice?

Hey ref, he's pushing!

Help me out, Hohn.

FOOTBALL HIGHLIGHTS

HOMECOMING

Gracefully seated on her throne in the cafeteria, is our Homecoming Queen, Gerry Callaway. Attendants to the Queen are Charlotte Lemon, Rose Burger, Margie Matheson, and Linda Wright.

Is this our football team in action? Exercise in the form of the Charleston was the theme of the delightful Homecoming Skit.

The Homecoming game, played against Fairbury, was an exciting one, with all the players giving top performances, in spite of the cold weather.

Bob Hohn streaked his way down the field for four touchdowns and played a good defensive game. Fullback Gary Wiebe made the other two touchdowns and had one touchdown run called back. Hohn broke free in the fourth quarter and was pushed out of bounds on the Hastings one yard line, but this was nullified by a Beatrice penalty. With Lyle Loth holding the ball, Tom Bitting made two PATS during the game. Scampering Tom Wright gained a lot of yardage for the Orangemen. The Orangemen are to be commended for their 36-6 win over the Tigers.

The car from the Cafeteria home room was the winning car in the Homecoming Parade.
